at 0400 on Friday 26 Feb 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Dry with some sunshine.

Today:
A cloudy start in places but brightening up, with some good sunny spells the best of these in East Highland and the Great Glen. Cloud may be more persistent over Skye and Wester Ross. Strengthening southerly winds over the Hebrides. Maximum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Tonight:
A clear evening in east. Cloud and rain will reach the Hebrides later this evening and extend east overnight, though becoming light and patchy there. Isles clearing before morning. Minimum temperature 5 deg C (41 deg F).

Saturday:
A cloudy start on mainland with patchy light rain before sunnier skies extend from the west soon after daybreak. Pleasantly mild. Maximum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
It will be a fine settled spell of weather through into the start of next week with good spells of sunshine. Perhaps some light showers over Isles.
